

5th Annual
Southeast Roundtable on Philosophy of the Americas
(SERPA)
September 20, 2019

Cone Building, Room 112
UNC Charlotte, Main Campus

TIME	PRESENTER	TITLE
8:45-9:30am	COFFEE, TEA & PASTRIES (provided by the UNC Charlotte Ethics Center)
9:30am	Shannon Sullivan, Department Chair	Welcome from the UNC Charlotte Philosophy Department
9:35-10:30am	Gregory Pappas, Texas A&M University	“‘American’ Philosophers and Activists Grace Lee Boggs and Luis Villoro on the Way Forward for Democracy”
10:35am-11:30am	Andrea Pitts UNC Charlotte	“Tracing Carceral Medicine across Canada and the United States”
11:30am-1:00pm	LUNCH (on your own/on campus)
1-1:55pm	Shannon Sullivan, UNC Charlotte	“Achieving Whose Country? Rorty and Baldwin on the United States”
2-2:55pm	Chris Voparil, Union Institute & University	“Rorty and Experience”
3-3:15pm	BREAK
3:15-4:10pm	Robert Pinka, UNC Charlotte	“Toward a Synthetic Pragmatism: Understanding the Connections between Human and Artificial Life”
4:15-5:10pm	Sergio Gallegos, John Jay College (via skype)	“Juxtaposing the Aesthetic Views of Alain Locke and José Carlos Mariátegui”
5:15-6:15pm	RECEPTION - WINNINGHAM LOUNGE	